SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Cecilian Club

The Cecilian Club held a most delightful meeting Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. O. O. Green, host and leader of the program, at her home in West Main. The opera "Norma" by Bellini, was the subject of study and Mrs. L. P. Evans gave the opera story. Miss Olivia Baldwin played a brilliant transposition of Norma arranged by Dorn, and the duet,

Coming Events Cast Their Shadows

Prepare Now to Withstand the Crisis.

Do not anticipate with a shuddering dread the beautiful event of childbirth. You can avoid discomfort during the period and strain at the crisis by preparing your system and putting yourself in splendid condition to meet the time.

For just this purpose women all over the land, in every walk of life, have used for over half a century the time-honored and famous remedy, Mother's Friend. It is prepared to give the mother-to-be that direct help she needs. The muscles, nerves, tendons and cords are made and kept soft and elastic. Thus strain is avoided, and as a result nervousness, nausea, bearing-down and stretching pains are avoided.

The abdominal muscles expand easily and gently when baby is born. Naturally, pain is less and the hours are fewer. The system is prepared and the crisis is one of much less danger.

Write the Bradford Regulator Company, Dept. M, Lamar Building, Atlanta, Georgia, for their helpful Motherhood Book, and obtain a bottle of Mother's Friend from the drugist today. It is just as standard as anything you can think of.

And remember, there is nothing to take the place of MOTHER'S FRIEND.

"Hear Me Norma" by Mrs. Paul Burnam and Mrs. T. D. Chenault was a most pleasing number.

Miss Helen Bennett's foreword concerning the spring musical events aroused quite an interest. Miss Brownie Telford played a sketch of Dubois in her usual excellent style, and Mrs. McCaughey in Moore's beautiful melody piece "The Siren's Song," evinced the possibilities of piano playing. Mrs. Green was assisted in entertaining by her sister, Mrs. Wheeler, of Lexington. The next club meeting will be held with Mrs. Harvey Chenault May fourteenth.

Mr. Mat Shearer is in Cincinnati this week

Mrs. F. H. Gordon is visiting Mrs. O. L. May in Danville.

Rev. D. H. Matherly made a business trip to Winchester Tuesday.

Mrs. C. L. Wheeler, of Lexington, spent Wednesday with Mrs. O. Olin Green

Mrs. E. Tuit Burnman entertained the Navy Knitting League Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. G. C. Clark, of White Hall, is spending the week with her sister Mrs. Clifton Weaver.

Friends will be glad to hear that Mrs. E. C. McDougle is very much improved from her recent illness.

Dr. Henry L. Perry has returned from a two weeks stay at Mt. Jackson, greatly benefitted, by the trip.

Miss Elizabeth Farley, and little nephew, Leroy Jordan, returned to Covington Tuesday having spent a week with Miss Belle March on Breck avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan Howard and daughter, Susan, of Paris, will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Howard on Lancaster avenue, Saturday and Sunday.

News comes from Mrs. Kellogg's physician, in Louisville, this (Friday) morning, that her condition shows a decided improvement which message is indeed gratifying to her host of friends.

Miss Margaretta Smith who has been overseas for several months, with the Barrow Unit, has returned and is with her sister, Mrs. G. W. Phelps and is cordially welcomed by her legion of friends.

Miss Bettie Perry will come home from Hamilton College today, for the Cotillion, and will have as her guests, Miss Mary Harper Henderson, of Georgetown, Miss Almata Hinton, of Paris, Miss Lillian Collins, of Lexington, and Miss Mary Virginia Berry, of Morgantown.

THIS WOMAN FOUND HEALTH

And Escaped an Operation by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Hazelhurst, Ga.—"I have used your remedies for only ten months, and they saved me from an operation. Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was so ill from a female trouble that I was forced to stay in bed for a week at a time with weakness and pain, but your medicine has done so much for me that I am recommending it to all suffering women. It certainly is a great medicine and is a sure road to health for women. You may publish this letter if you like."—Mrs. W. C. LITTLE, R.F.D. A, Hazelhurst, Ga.

Women who suffer from headaches, nervousness, backache, the blues and other symptoms of a functional derangement should give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial.

For forty years it has been overcoming such ailments of women after other medicines have failed.

If you want special suggestions in regard to your condition, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of long experience is at your service, and your letter will be held in strict confidence.

The Palace Barbershop is the name of the tonsorial parlors located on Main street, formerly under the management of Walter Delaney. The shop was bought by Mr. A. J. House, who has engaged the services of Charles Crawford, who is acting manager. A new electric hair cutting device has been installed and with Charles Crawford in charge of the front chair, its success is assured.
